Navigating the job search steps in today's economy is hard, but we can help you find a way.

Daily Work is a small, nonprofit organization that provides one-to-one coaching and technical help to struggling job seekers. If you find it challenging to find employment because of:

- » Lack of job experience or limited job skills
- » Inadequate transportation
- » Unstable housing and/or home life
- » Felony record
- » Limited English language skills

Daily Work can offer you:

- » A caring, supportive environment
- » Personal coaching and action steps for finding a job
- » Resumé development and interview tips
- » Computer access and assistance with online applications
- » Assistance identifying other resources such as English language classes, specific job training, and public services

Main Office: (651) 204-3043
105 University Avenue West
Saint Paul, MN 55103

In the lower level of Christ Lutheran Church on Capitol Hill.

- » Enter through the back of the building, off of Sherburne Avenue.
- » Free parking is located in the lot marked "Christ Lutheran Church."
